THE DAVID CLOVER FESTIVAL OF SINGING

Dr. David Clover came to Sheffield in 1966 having been appointed as the city's Music Adviser to the Education Department. It was one of the earliest residential courses for music teachers and its daily choral sessions, organised by David, which brought the first members of The Sheffield Teachers' Choir (as it was then known) together at the Buxton Conference Centre in the autumn term of 1968.

Following David's untimely death in 1979, The Teachers' Choir committee at the time decided that there should be a fitting and lasting tribute and memorial to his work. The result, in 1979, was the establishment of The David Clover Vocal Prize, the first competition being held in 1980. The David Clover Vocal Prize later became The David Clover Competition for Singers, and in 2010 was re-named The David Clover Festival of Singing. The original Vocal Prize provided an opportunity for singers to perform songs of their own choice with a view to being helped and encouraged by experienced judges of singing, and that ethos is still as strong as it ever was.

The Vocal Prize started in a very small way with only two classes for those of secondary school age. Since its inception, it has grown into a competitive event of worth, high standing, credibility and stature in the eyes of discerning musicians not only in and around the city of Sheffield, but also nationally. It has also proved itself a worthy vehicle of encouragement and support for young singers, but the re-named Festival is now open to all singers from the age of nine, and its chief objective is to foster this branch of music making which was ever one of Dr. Clover's greatest loves - singing. Much of his work was devoted to fostering the use of young voices whether as soloists or choralsists and he believed that the voice deserved equal status with other musical instruments.

Over the years, internationally famed singers and teachers of singing have adjudicated at the Festival, including Constance Shacklock, Marjorie Thomas, Jean Allister, Rae Woodland, Nigel Perrin, Mollie Petrie (first Patron) and Mark Wildman (President).

Previous winners include Elizabeth Watts (international soprano and Vice-President) and Ella Taylor (BBC Radio 2 Choirgirl of the Year, 2010) and many others (including Cari Searle, Jessica Greaves, Harriet Eyley, Anna Harvey and John Savournin) who have joined the singing professions.

Once the annual Festival has ended, The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir is always delighted to invite singers from the Festival to share in its concerts whenever possible.

2014 ADJUDICATOR - MARILYNNE DAVIES

Welsh Eisteddfodau provided Marilynne Davies with her early experience of performance on piano, cello and singing in all its forms. Since then she has continued as a performer, teacher and conductor and was until recently Head of the School of Performance at the College of Ripon and York St John - a post that embraced Music, Dance, Drama, Film and Television.

She now has a busy freelance career as an adjudicator at national and international festivals, as a voice consultant, teacher and conductor, and as a leader of a variety of workshops.

She has sung with professional orchestras including the London Mozart Players and has conducted choirs for BBC and ITV - the largest being a choir of 1100 children.

Her experience in teaching ranges from nursery to post-graduate levels and has involved classroom and individual teaching as well as being external examiner and assessor in performance for a number of universities at the graduate and postgraduate level.

Marilynne is an adjudicator member of the British and International Federation of Festivals and in 2011 she was honoured to be one of the first of two Music adjudicators made Fellows of the Federation.

SAFEGUARDING POLICY

A copy of the Safeguarding Policy will be on display at the Festival and is also available on the Festival website. This policy relates to children (under the age of 18) and also members of vulnerable groups of any age who are identified to the Festival before their arrival at the Festival. Contact should be made by parents and/or teachers via letter or telephone to DCFS, 9 Carlton Rise, Pudsey, West Yorkshire LS28 7LS; tel: 0113 256 5320, or via the Festival email address. The Festival will actively seek to meet the needs of children from ethnic groups and children who are disabled. Any subsequent reference to 'children' includes members of other vulnerable groups.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

No person shall receive less favourable treatment or consideration on the grounds of race, colour, religion or belief, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, age (i.e. 9 or over), disability or marital status, or be disadvantaged by any requirement or condition that cannot be justified. The opportunity for people to compete in the Festival is provided through a variety of classes. All sessions of the Festival are open to a public audience and the Festival will use only venues that have made provision for people with physical disabilities. The Festival will keep under review its policy, procedures and practices on equal opportunities.

FESTIVAL HELP

We want to see the Festival continue to provide opportunities for the encouragement and development of all its entrants, the competitive element being a means to this end. Even if you are a prospective performer or performer's supporter, you could still help to further our cause by helping in two ways - as a volunteer helper and/or providing financial support.

Volunteer helpers - are a welcome and essential part of running the Festival and there is always a need for new people to assist in various ways as helpers need to be replaced when volunteers retire. Helpers are sometimes former performers, parents or teachers, or just anyone who is interested in promoting the performing arts. There is no need to be an expert, you just need to be committed, sensible, unflappable, a member of a team, but above all, have a sense of humour! Areas in which you could help are door stewards, ticket and programme sellers and refreshments. You don't have to be there all day, every day. Helpers can choose how much time they are able to give. If you would like to become a volunteer, please contact The Chairman, Joy Bowler, on 0114 236 2544 (email: joybowler@googlemail.com) for details.

Financial support - To continue to mount the Festival and engage specialist adjudicators, we need ongoing financial assistance from individuals and businesses who are interested in helping the amazing range of vocal talent to flourish. The cost of running the Festival increases each year, and despite the sponsorship of the City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir, we are faced with raising more financial support in the future. Maybe you, or someone you know, can help to support the Festival in any of the following ways by:

- becoming a Friend of the The David Clover Festival (see back page for details)
- sponsoring the Festival
- advertising in future publications of this Handbook and/or the Festival programme.
- making a donation
- making a bequest

For information on the opportunities and benefits of sponsorship, advertisements, donations and bequests, please contact the Sponsorship Coordinator, Judith Adam, on 0114 255 4962 (email: judith.adam51@btinternet.com) by 16 November 2013.

Any financial assistance offered may be able to increase in value if you are a tax payer and by 'gift-aiding' your contribution where appropriate.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Audience - an audience is welcome at all Festival sessions, so please support and encourage the Festival and its performers in their endeavours and appreciate and enjoy the talents of all the participants by being in the audience.

Adjudicators - All adjudicators are appointed by The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Committee. No performer, teacher or member of the audience may approach the adjudicator in a class venue unless invited to do so, nor engage the adjudicator in conversation or discussion on any matter, before a session, or whilst the session is in progress, otherwise disqualification may be incurred.

Cancellation of a class - In the event of a class being poorly subscribed, it may be withdrawn at the discretion of the Committee and entry fees returned.

Photographs, Recording Equipment and Mobile Phones - Due to copyright law and safeguarding policy, members of the audience, as well as performers and their supporters, are not allowed to take photographs or make audio or video recordings at the Festival. Therefore, the use of any kind of camera, recording equipment, mobile telephone or other computerised device is strictly forbidden. However, the Festival may appoint a designated, authorised, professional photographer for publicity purposes to promote the work and ethos of the Festival and for the benefit of the performers. Performers should indicate on the Application Form a) if they or their supporters have any objection to being included in any photographs taken by the official photographer and b) if they give permission for any photographs taken to be used for publicity purposes, etc, without further consultation from the Festival.

Safety of performers - Teachers and parents should be aware of their responsibilities in entering any performers with limited physical capabilities or special needs. They should pass on any such information that might impact on the Festival's work, in writing, before the start of the Festival, to DCFS, 9 Carlton Rise, Pudsey, West Yorkshire LS28 7LS - tel: 0113 256 5320.

Supervision of children - Please note that all children under 16 years must be accompanied and supervised effectively. Supervision may come from a parent, an adult acting on their behalf, a teacher or a group leader. The David Clover Festival of Singing can not take responsibility for unsupervised children at the Festival venues. Any person acting in a supervisory capacity will be expected to pay the normal admission fee.

Liability - The Festival does not hold itself responsible for any injuries sustained by any performer or member of the public whilst at Festival venues.

Lost Property - The Festival will not be responsible for property lost or damaged during the Festival.

Amateur status - The Festival is for amateur performers only and professionals are not eligible to enter. A professional is considered to be one who derives the major part of his/her livelihood from singing performance or the teaching of singing.

Entry and Exit - No person will be allowed to enter or leave the hall during any performance or adjudication as movement tends to distract the performer, the adjudicator, and the rest of the audience.

Withdrawals and Class Start Times - As it is impossible to foresee the number of last-minute withdrawals due to illness or for any other reason, the committee reserves the right to start classes, except for the first class of a session, early. Please make sure that you arrive in plenty of time.

On the evening of Sunday 9 February 2014, the winner of each Non-Recital Class will sing the winning song of each class again. This will be in competition for The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Silver Salver and Prize which will be awarded for the most outstanding performance by a winner of the Non-Recital Classes. Should an individual win more than one Non-Recital Class, he or she should choose only one of his/her winning songs on this occasion. Group D: a song (excluding Groups A and B) written during the 19th century

Group E: an art song (excluding Groups A and B) written during the 20th or 21st century

Group F: an unaccompanied folksong or an unaccompanied traditional song

NB Repertoire from musicals or music theatre is NOT appropriate in a Recital Class.

At no stage in the Festival should a Recital programme contain BOTH an accompanied folk or traditional song arrangement AND an unaccompanied folk or traditional song.

In Class 1

Junior Recital, the programme should consist of 3 songs only.

In Classes 2, 3 and 4

Intermediate, Senior and Open Recitals, the programmes may consist of 3 or 4 songs.

All recitals must adhere to the time limits. The time limit is for the musical performance i.e. from the first note of the accompaniment to the end of the last and should include short verbal introductions. Any re-starts which are the fault of the singer are included in the performance time limit. Any re-starts which are not the fault of the singer will not be included in the performance time limit. Should a performer exceed the time limit, an adjudication will be given, but the Festival reserves the right to withhold a placing.

The adjudicator will choose two performers in each Recital Class who will become the winner and runner-up. These placings will be decided, and the awards presented, on the evening of Sunday 9

February 2014, when each performer will repeat two songs of their own choice from their original programme. These two songs may, or may not, include the unaccompanied folk or traditional song.

Words and Song Class

Class 20 English Words and Song (any age)

For this year, in this new class, there will only be one award. The winner will receive £50, a certificate and The Petrie Rose Bowl. The performer should recite the words from memory and then sing the song. The adjudicator will judge both the speaking and the singing and will be listening for clarity of communication with understanding and imagination. The words must not be a translation from another language, but the composer need not be English. Repertoire from Songs from the Shows is not appropriate in this class. The winner will be invited to perform again on the evening of Sunday 9 February when they will receive their prizes, but will not be eligible for The City of Sheffield Teachers' Choir Silver Salver.

Awards

All awards are made at the discretion of the adjudicator whose decisions are final, unless a singer exceeds the time limit (see page 9). It is expected that the prize money will be used to further the musical development of the prize winner.

In classes of 3 performers or less, one prize only will be awarded.

In the unlikely and unexpected event of the standard of singing in any one class being of insufficient merit to justify a first place, a second place prize only will be awarded.

Non-Recital Classes

The runner-up will receive a cash prize and a certificate which will be presented at the end of each Class session after the adjudication.

The winner will receive the appropriate David Clover trophy, a cash prize and a certificate at the Presentation of Awards on Sunday evening, 9 February 2014.
